

Senior Archeologist – Permit Holder

(Langley, BC)

$90,000 to $110,000

On behalf of our client, Katzie Development Corporation (“KDC”), we are searching for a Senior Archeologist – Permit Holder to join their team under KDLP. KDC is a Katzie First Nation-owned and operated economic development firm established by Katzie First Nation in 2006. As a corporation, it operates under an appointed Board of Directors who oversee its activities and strive to promote the company’s success for the benefit of its membership in the Nation.

The Northwest Coast Archaeological Permit Holder will join Katzie Development Limited Partnership (KDLP) and report to the Operations Manager. This position will work out of the Langley office and in the field as required. Applicants who qualify to hold HCA permits but have not achieved full permit holder status are encouraged to apply.

Key Responsibilities

- Mentoring Archaeological Staff, as appropriate;
- Preparing or contributing to proposals;
- Securing heritage inspection, investigation, and alteration permits;
- Designing and leading archaeological field programs;
- Liaising with First Nations and community members;
- Managing project scope, schedule, and cost;
- Participating in business development activities, including meetings with prospective clients;
- Participating in Indigenous community relationship-building activities;
- Undertaking analysis and preparing technical reports;
- Writing permit applications, interim reports, and final reports;
- Assisting with operations, as required.

Skills and Qualifications

- Possess a BA and or BSc with an archaeology major (a master’s degree is desirable);
- Must be an Associate or Professional member of the British Columbia Association of Professional Archaeologists (BCAPA);
- Minimum 6 years experience in Cultural Resource Management;
- Minimum 6 years experience identifying and recording traditional use sites & features, CMTs, and a full range of coastal archaeological site types;
- A valid class 5 driver’s license and clean driver’s abstract;
- Desire to work closely (in both leadership and supporting roles) with First Nations;
- Excellent writing and communication skills including experience with technical report writing;
- Able to work independently as well as a part of a team.

What KDC Offers

- Salary range - $90,000-$110,000 (commensurate with education, skills, and experience);
- A benefits package including health and dental coverage, life insurance, long-term disability as well as a health care spending account to be used for what you need most;
- Pension matching of 3.5%;
- Generous vacation and sick day benefits.

This position will appeal to a dynamic individual seeking a multifaceted role in archaeology, offering a diverse range of responsibilities and opportunities for growth. Based in Langley, with a blend of field and in-office work, this role provides a stimulating environment where no two days are the same. By Section 41 of the BC Human Rights Code and Section 15 of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, preference may be given to qualified candidates with Aboriginal Ancestry.

If you feel you have the demonstrated background and are interested in learning more about this opportunity, please forward your resume to laise.sato@mnp.ca. We thank all candidates for their interest; however, only those selected to move forward will be contacted. We encourage all applicants to apply through the process managed by MNP and to refrain from directly approaching Katzie Development Corporation (KDC) staff.
